

Mission Support

Mon	Today we pray for God's creation, the earth and all creative activity. We pray that the wealth and work of the world would be available to all and for the exploitation of none. We pray for our stewardship of God's creation. We give thanks for the creative work of the following organisations: Mission Aviation Fellowship (www.maf-org.uk), Leprosy Mission (www.leprosymission.org.uk), Good News Trust (www.goodnewstrust.org.uk), Mustard Seed.
Tues	Today we pray for peace. As Christ came to make peace in a hostile world, we pray for the strength, courage and love to be peacemakers also. We especially lift up in prayer the persecuted church, our brothers and sisters who suffer for Christ's sake throughout the world. We also pray however, for our enemies who know not, what they do. We pray for the work of Open Doors (www.opendoorsuk.org) and CARE (www.care.org.uk).
Wed	Today we give thanks for the Holy Spirit who renews us and sends us out into the world. We pray for the leading of the Holy Spirit and the courage to share Christ's love and the gospel with others. We also remember in prayer the following individuals: Loz Gallagher, Nanneke Boxall, Esther Le Ruez, Helen Middleton, John and Suzi Peachey.
Thurs	Today we pray for unity and community. We pray Christ's prayer for unity of all who believe and we remember His call to love our neighbours. We pray that God's kingdom come and His will be done in our own community and in communities all over the world. We especially pray for our brothers and sisters in the Katanga Dioces in the Congo and for the work of the following organisations: Christian Portuguese Mission, Grace Trust (www.gracetrust.com), Street Pastors (www.jersey.streetpastors.org.uk).
Fri	On Friday, Jesus was put to death on a cross. Today we pray for the suffering and broken people of the world. We particularly pray for all those who are too weak, too old or too young to defend themselves. We lift up in prayer the work of the following organisations: Malawi Orphan Fund, Orphaid, Christians against Poverty .
Sat	For many, today is a time for leisure and shopping. We pray that in our pursuits of leisure, God would be honoured and glorified. We thank God for His many blessings and provision and ask that the Holy Spirit guide us in making fair choices. We pray particularly for the ministry of Christians in Sport (www.christiansinsport.org.uk).
Sun	Today we celebrate the resurrection and new life. We thank Jesus for breaking the power of sin and death and for bringing us eternal life. We pray for transformation in our own lives and that of others. We especially pray for Freedom for Life Ministries (www.freedomforlife.org.uk).

Mission Support

Mon	Today we pray for God's creation, the earth and all creative activity. We pray that the wealth and work of the world would be available to all and for the exploitation of none. We pray for our stewardship of God's creation. We give thanks for the creative work of the following organisations: Mission Aviation Fellowship (www.maf-org.uk), Leprosy Mission (www.leprosymission.org.uk), Good News Trust (www.goodnewstrust.org.uk), Mustard Seed.
Tues	Today we pray for peace. As Christ came to make peace in a hostile world, we pray for the strength, courage and love to be peacemakers also. We especially lift up in prayer the persecuted church, our brothers and sisters who suffer for Christ's sake throughout the world. We also pray however, for our enemies who know not, what they do. We pray for the work of Open Doors (www.opendoorsuk.org) and CARE (www.care.org.uk).
Wed	Today we give thanks for the Holy Spirit who renews us and sends us out into the world. We pray for the leading of the Holy Spirit and the courage to share Christ's love and the gospel with others. We also remember in prayer the following individuals: Loz Gallagher, Nanneke Boxall, Esther Le Ruez, Helen Middleton, John and Suzi Peachey.
Thurs	Today we pray for unity and community. We pray Christ's prayer for unity of all who believe and we remember His call to love our neighbours. We pray that God's kingdom come and His will be done in our own community and in communities all over the world. We especially pray for our brothers and sisters in the Katanga Dioces in the Congo and for the work of the following organisations: Christian Portuguese Mission, Grace Trust (www.gracetrust.com), Street Pastors (www.jersey.streetpastors.org.uk).
Fri	On Friday, Jesus was put to death on a cross. Today we pray for the suffering and broken people of the world. We particularly pray for all those who are too weak, too old or too young to defend themselves. We lift up in prayer the work of the following organisations: Malawi Orphan Fund, Orphaid, Christians against Poverty .
Sat	For many, today is a time for leisure and shopping. We pray that in our pursuits of leisure, God would be honoured and glorified. We thank God for His many blessings and provision and ask that the Holy Spirit guide us in making fair choices. We pray particularly for the ministry of Christians in Sport (www.christiansinsport.org.uk).
Sun	Today we celebrate the resurrection and new life. We thank Jesus for breaking the power of sin and death and for bringing us eternal life. We pray for transformation in our own lives and that of others. We especially pray for Freedom for Life Ministries (www.freedomforlife.org.uk).